WORKSHOPS

Part of calling a generation to arise is training them to do what they are arising for. We are strategically linking up our workshops to better equip you to Spread the Love.

MINGLE FEST

Focus is a great opportunity to get to know other people. Mingle Fest gives everyone a chance to connect with old friends as well as make new ones.

SPREAD THE LOVE

We are very excited to offer something new this year. We aren't just interested in sitting in seats and hearing about the stuff, we want to get out there and do it. Spread the Love will have us doing just that.

YOUTH PASTORS

We want to connect with you and hear about what God is doing in your community. You are welcome to a leader's lunch on Saturday.

Also, registration costs are waved for you and your spouse when accompanied by a group. (please still fill out a form and indicate if you plan on attending the lunch) attending

GENERATION ARISE

Psalm 24 talks about a generation who seek the face of God. They are untouched by the pull of other gods (fame, wealth, immoral sex, etc.) They have kept themselves from something for something – the Lord Himself.

It's our belief that God has been calling people in these days to cut themselves off from sin and seek the face of God.

We are not looking for a hyped-up weekend event, but to join with God in what He's doing in the earth today.

Are you hearing the call?

SPEAKER

Andrew Micklefield

Andrew's ministry began at the University of Winnipeg when God grew a handful of Christians into a thriving and bold witness for Christ. Around the same time, exposure to Canada's Arctic revivals birthed a call to preach the gospel, which launched him into full time ministry at the age of 22. He has traveled to numerous countries, but spends most of his time in Steinbach, Manitoba, where, since 2000, he has served as one of the pastors at Calvary Chapel. Andrew is married to Ruth and has three children – Simeon, Chloe and Ezra
